MID-TERM REPORT

Summary: Please provide details on your primary activities and/or responsibilities since you began the Scholar Rescue Fund fellowship. Please include information on classes taught, research projects, lectures, writing and any additional activities you have conducted.

Contact with former students: Have you continued to teach or advise Iraqi students who may still be in Iraq or who have relocated to another country? If so, how are you continuing your communications and what advising/teaching have you conducted?

Publications/Presentations: Please list any publications or presentations completed since you began the fellowship. Include published articles, co-authors if any, and indicate journals that have accepted papers for publication.

Conferences/Meetings: Please list any conferences/meetings (include name, location, date) you have attended since you began the fellowship. Give a brief summary of the conference/meeting, any benefits of attending, and whether you presented a talk, paper or poster.

Issues/Concerns: Please comment on any issues or concerns you have had during your fellowship thus far, i.e. in regards to placement, support, situation, etc.

Post-Fellowship Plans: Indicate what activities you hope or plan to undertake at the completion of the SRF fellowship. Note whether you will remain at your host institution, return home or relocate.

Yes, I give the Scholar Rescue Fund permission to talk about my experience to other scholars and friends of the Fund. (Please check the box.)
